Philip A. Connelly Background

Born in Framingham, Massachusetts in June 1907, Philip A. Connelly became a leader in his chosen profession-Food Service Management. He worked diligently and earnestly throughout his life to promote professionalism in food service, in both the civilian industry and military services. As a result of his dedicated purpose and positive influence, civilian and military food service programs are more closely aligned and personnel in these programs now have uniform goals in education training, career development and job opportunities.

Department of the Army Philip A. Connelly Awards Program

National Restaurant Association (NRA)

The National Restaurant Association (NRA) is the largest foodservice trade association in the world*—supporting nearly 500,000 restaurant businesses. In partnership with state restaurant associations, NRA works every day to empower all restaurant owners and operators to achieve more than they thought possible.

- Promotes entrepreneurship and hospitality.
- Advocate for pro-restaurant regulation and operational freedom.
- Governed by a volunteer board of directors and led in Washington, D.C., by a president and chief executive officer.
- Works closely with a network of 52 state restaurant associations to create a truly national structure.
