

2018 Quartermaster Regimental Events

The United States Army Quartermaster School will celebrate its Pride, Lineage and esprit de corps during a series of Corps Honors events on May 1st and 2nd 2018.

On Tuesday, May 1st, the 266th Quartermaster Battalion will re-dedicate its new headquarters building in honor of Major General Fred Sheffey. Following that ceremony, Brigadier General (Promotable) Rodney Fogg, the 54th Quartermaster General and Commandant of the United States Army Quartermaster School, will host the Hall of Fame Ceremony at the Lee Club, at Fort Lee, Virginia.

On that same afternoon, a 92G (Culinary Specialist) Statue will be unveiled at the Quartermaster Museum. That will be followed by BG Fogg officiating the Honors Ceremony recognizing both the Distinguished Members and Units of the Quartermaster Corps.

We hope you will make plans to join us for our Corps Honors events at Fort Lee, Virginia...the Home of the Quartermaster Corps.

"Supporting Victory"!

GREETINGS ALL QUARTERMASTERS

The Quartermaster Corps Honors Program was created to recognize outstanding individuals and units (both past and present) who have helped fulfill the Corps' mission and have brought known credit to the Corps over the course of its long and proud history.
